

We are hiring!!!

We are looking for a Project Manger

Who we are:

Stamuli is a multidisciplinary architectural studio led by an international team of professionals with a broad creative and technical skillset. Specializing in architecture, interiors and furniture design for high-end and fashion, our rationalistic approach to design combined with our passion for detail and sustainability is what makes us stand out.

We design and we make it happen.

About the position:

We are looking for a project manager with a strong passion for retail design to join our international team! Our ideal candidate is proactive, self-motivated, and eager to contribute to a collaborative and supportive team environment. In this role, you will be responsible for bringing retail spaces to life. Your daily tasks will include managing client relationships and budgets, coordinating with suppliers, and traveling to sites to ensure every project meets the highest standards. You'll work closely with our design team, ensuring creative visions are realized while staying aligned with practical and budgetary constraints. If you're highly organized, thrive in a fast-paced, dynamic setting, and have a passion for retail design, we'd love to hear from you!

Requirements:

- Minimum of 5 years of work experience as project manager for commercial architecture projects. Experience in the retail sector is highly advantageous
- Degree in relevant field: architecture, engineering etc.
- Exceptional organizational skills with a proactive, detail-oriented, and deadline-focused mindset
- Strong communication skills, both verbal and written
- A collaborative team player who contributes positively to the work environment
- Proficiency in Microsoft Excel and other Microsoft Office applications is a must
- We work with Adobe, V-Ray(3D), Rhino (3D) and AutoCAD (2D) but for this role they are not required but knowing how to use them are highly advantageous
- Fluent in English, both spoken and written

This is a full-time position based at Stamuli's headquarters located on Södermalm, with in-office work to foster teamwork and a collaborative work environment.

Start: As soon as possible

Hours: Full-time
